

Tamas Mezei

Full Stack Developer, PowerApps+MSFlow Developer

I started website development in 2019, first at school, and then at my first company since July 2020. I first got to know SharePoint in the spring of 2022, after which I developed PowerApps and MSFlow for the company. I've only been working with PowerApps since the summer.

Education

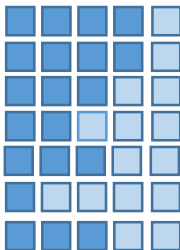

2018 – 2020	Technical Computer Scientist – Profession, DSZC Brassai Sámuel Debrecen
-------------	--

Experience

2020 – 2022	Full Stack WebDeveloper <ul style="list-style-type: none">A website created for a football team (HTML, CSS, JS, PHP) allows you to view the players of the settlements, the table is also available, and everything can be developed from an admin interface in the background.Further development of OSTicket"Methodology" card website, where a PDF file is displayed in the background when they want to see the card, and it is possible to filter the page and submit a new card using a formIn addition to these, several WordPress sites were created
2022 – present	PowerApps + MSFlow Developer <ul style="list-style-type: none">Digitized procurement process with saving to a SharePoint list made in PowerApps, four-round Teams approvals, automated mail sendingDigitized labor application process (2 pcs) with Teams approvals, timings, messaging, saving to a SharePoint list

Programming Skills

HTML/CSS
Bootstrap
JavaScript
React
PHP
NodeJS
WordPress

PowerApps
Power Automate

Languages

Hungarian

English

Attachments